REPORT.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Lansing, December 31, 1872.

To His Excellency Henry P. Baldwin, Governor of the State of Michigan:

I have the honor, herewith to submit my fourth and last annual report.

The case of John M. Jones, referred to in my last report, was decided at the January term of the Supreme Court, and the alleged errors overruled.

Since the date of my last report, the case against Henry Johr and sureties has been again tried in the St. Clair Circuit, and a judgment of $10,255 35 obtained against the defendants. The defendants have removed the case to the Supreme Court. I was ready to submit the case at the October term, but the counsel for the defense was not ready. I cannot doubt that the result will be adverse to the defendants, and that the decision will put an end to any further litigation. It gives me pleasure to state that the case was twice ably tried in the Circuit, on the part of the State, by Charles F. Harrington, Esq., Prosecuting Attorney of that county.

At the January term of the Supreme Court, the case of Samuel A. Bashford, plaintiff in error, against the People, defendants in error, was argued, and the judgment of the Court below reversed.

Bashford was charged with the crime of murder in the Midland Circuit, and convicted of manslaughter. The principal error assigned was, that the Circuit Judge, having called another Judge to hold the term, assisted the prosecution on the trial of the cause.

At the same term, the case of the People against Hon. George V. N. Lothrop, was heard and decided. An information, in the nature of a quo warranto, was filed against the respondent, calling upon him to show by what right he claimed to hold and exercise the office of Park Commissioner in the city of Detroit. The judgment of the Court was against the people.

At the same term, the application of the People ex rel., the Auditor General, for a mandamus to compel the Board of Supervisors of Jackson county to spread a certain tax found due by the Auditor General, was granted.

At the July term of the Supreme Court, the application of Theron F. Giddings for a mandamus to compel the Quartermaster General to pay certain bounties to him as assignee, was denied. The Court held that a substitute was not a volunteer within the meaning of the statute.

At the same term, the application of the National Life Insurance Company of Chicago, Illinois, for a mandamus to compel the Commissioner of Insurance to permit said company to transact the business of insurance in this State, was denied.

At the same term, the case of Charles Hurd, plaintiff in error, against the People, defendants in error, was argued. Hurd was charged with the crime of murder in the Ionia Circuit, and convicted. For manifest error on the trial the judgment was reversed.

At the same term, the case of the People against Samuel L. Caton, was argued and submitted. Caton was charged in the Recorder's Court of the city of Detroit with the crime of uttering a forged mortgage. No error was found in the record.

At the October term of the Supreme Court, the case of the People against Sherburn Gaige, was argued and submitted. Gaige was charged in the Hillsdale Circuit with the crime of perjury in swearing to a bill of complaint in chancery. It did not appear that the oath was required by any law, and the conviction was set aside.

At the same term, the case of the People against Mathew M. Fox, was argued and submitted. Fox was charged in the Branch Circuit with the crime of perjury in swearing to an affidavit to be used on a motion to amend his plea in a civil suit. There being no averment in the information that the affidavit was used on the hearing of the motion, the Court set aside the conviction, and sent the case back for a new trial.

At the same term, the case of the People against Philip Jhons, was argued and submitted. Jhons was charged in the Washtenaw Circuit with the crime of arson, in burning certain property with intent to defraud an insurance company. No error was found in the record, and the judgment was affirmed.

At the same term, the case of the People against Edward L. Smith was argued and submitted. Smith was charged in the Clinton Circuit with the crime of embezzlement. There appearing to have been no legal preliminary examination, the judgment was reversed.

At the same term, the case of Melville Merwin, plaintiff in error, against the People, defendants in error, was argued and submitted. Merwin was supposed to be charged in the Recorder's Court of the city of Detroit with the crime of grand larceny. The errors alleged were upon the absence of any description of the property stolen and its value, in the information. The case is still pending.

At the same term, the case of the People against William L. Snyder, was argued and submitted. Snyder was charged in the Van Buren Circuit with the crime of arson, in burning the dwelling-house of his wife, while occupying the same with her. The Court held that the parties were tenants in the habitation, and that neither at the common law nor by our statute could he be guilty of the crime.

At the same term, the case of the People against William Knapp was submitted. Knapp was charged in the Livingston Circuit with the crime of murder, and was convicted of manslaughter. For errors in the admission of evidence and in the charge of the Court, the judgment was reversed.

At the same term, the case of the people against James Burden was argued and submitted. Burden was charged in the Genesee Circuit with the crime of murder, and was convicted of murder in the second degree. For errors in the instructions of the Court to the jury, the judgment was reversed and a new trial ordered.

At the same term, the application of William H. Chapman for a mandamus to compel the Commissioner of the State Land Office to permit him to purchase a certain lot in the city of Lansing, donated to a religious society, claimed to have no existence. The writ was denied.

At the same term, the case of Oliver P. Pillsbury et al., complainants, against the Auditor General and County Treasurer of Mecosta county, was argued and submitted. The complainants filed their bill in the Mecosta Circuit and procured an injunction, restraining the defendants from collecting certain taxes assessed against them in 1869. An answer was put in, and proofs taken. The Circuit Court decreed a dismissal of the bill with costs. The decree was affirmed by the Supreme Court.

The use of my name of office has been frequently invoked during the year in matters where the State had but little interest. In such cases I have granted its use on the application of a responsible relator.

A large number of injunctions have been granted to restrain the collection of ditch and other taxes. In such cases the papers have been sent to the Prosecuting Attorney of the county where the bill was filed, with directions to defend, if any defense could be made. In all cases, so far as my knowledge extends, the several Prosecuting Attorneys have each and all rendered me every assistance in their power, and have attended to the business entrusted to them with commendable zeal and ability.

The correspondence of this office is constantly increasing, and very much of my time has been devoted to it.

Blanks were sent to all the Prosecuting Attorneys in this State upon which to make their reports to this office. No reports have been received from the counties of Berry, Delta, Kalcasca, Lake, and Marquette.

Herewith find abstracts of such reports as have been received.

Yours, respectfully,

DWIGHT MAY,

Attorney General.
